1. Ah! whith-er should I go, bur- den'd and sick and faint?
 2. My Sav-our bids me come: Ah! why do I de- lay?
 3. What is it keeps me back, from which I can - not part,
 4. Je - sus, the hin - drance show, which I have fear'd to see:
 5. Search - er of hearts, in mine Thy try - ing power dis - play;

To whom should I my trou- bles show, and pour out my com - plaint,
 He calls the wea - ry sin - ner home! And yet from Him I stay,
 Which will not let my Sav - iour take pos - ses - sion of my heart,
 Yet let me now con - sent to know what keeps me out from Thee,
 In - to its dark - est cor - ners shine, and take the veil a - way, and pour out my com - plaint.

 and yet from Him I stay.
 pos - ses - sion of my heart.
 what keeps me out from Thee.
 and take the veil a - way.
