1. Much we talk of Je - sus' blood; But how lit - tle's un - der - stood!
2. [O thou hid - eous mon - ster, Sin, What a curse hast thou brought in!
3. Would we then re - joice in - deed? Be it that from thee we're freed;
4. Dear - ly we are bought, for God Bought us with His own heart's blood;

Cmin Fmin G7 Cmin Fmin Cmin/Eb Cmin/G G7 Cmin

Of His suf - frings so in - tense, An - gels have no per - fect sense.
All cre - a - tion groans through thee, Preg - nant cause of mis - er - y.
And our just - est cause to grieve, Is that thou wilt to us cleave.
Bound - less depths of love di - vine! Je - sus, what a love was Thine!

Fmin Cmin/Eb Fmin Cmin Fmin Cmin/Eb Fmin Gsus4

Who can right - ly com - pre - hend Their beg - in - ning or their end?
Thou hast ru - ined wretch - ed man, Ev - er since the world be - gan;
Faith re - lieves us from thy guilt, But we think whose blood was spilt;
Though the won - ders Thou hast done Are as yet so lit - tle known,

Cmin Fmin G7 Cmin Fmin Cmin/Eb Cmin/GG7 Cmin

'Tis to God, and God a - lone, That their weight is ful - ly known.
Thou has God af - flict - ed too; Noth - ing less than that would do.
All we hear, or feel, or see, Serves to raise our hate to thee.]
Here we fix and com - fort take Je - sus died for sin - ners' sake.
