1. When a - long life's thorn - y road, Faints the soul be - neath the load,
2. Thou, our Sav - iour, from the throne List - 'nest to Thy peo - ple's moan;
3. Might - y to re - deem and save, Thou has o - ver - come the grave;

By its cares and sins op - pressed, Finds on earth no peace or rest;
Thou the Liv - ing Head, dost share Ev - 'ry pang Thy mem - bers bear;
Thou the bars of death hast riv - en, o - pen'd wide the gate of heav'n:

When the wi - ly tempt - er's near, fill - ing us with doubts and fear:
Full of ten - der - ness Thou art, Thou wilt heal the bro - ken heart;
Soon in glo - ry Thou shalt come, tak - ing Thy poor pil - grimshome:

Je - sus, to Thy feet we flee; Je - sus we will look to Thee.
Full of pow'r, Thine arm shall quell All the rage and might of hell.
Je - sus, then we all shall be, Ev - er, ev - er, Lord, with Thee!
