

Why Should I Sorrow More?

William Williams, 1772 / C.H. Spurgeon, 1866
Our Own Hymn-Book #632 (verse 3 altered)

HMS, 2010
ROGERS S.M.

D D/B G D/F#

1. Why should I sor - row more?
2. Let Sa - tan and the world,
3. The oath in - fal - li - ble
4. He'll bring me on my way
5. So all my doubts and fears
6. All that re - mains for me

G/E D/F# GMAJ⁹ G/B A/F# G/E A/C#

I trust a Sav - iour slain,
now rage or now al - lure;
is now my spir - it's trust;
un - to my jour - ney's end;
shall whol - ly flee a - way,
is but to love and sing,
And safe be - neath His shelt - ring cross,
The prom - is - es in Christ are made
I know that He who spoke the word,
He'll be my Fa - ther and my God,
And ev - 'ry mourn - ful night of tears
And wait un - til the an - gels come

G/B A/C# D

un - moved I shall re - main.
Im - mu - ta - ble and sure.
Is faith - ful, true and just.
my Sav - iour and my Friend.
be turn'd to joy - ous day.
to bear me to the King.